WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAR. 27, 1901.

SWELL CEMETERY FAILED.—The Atlantic Park Company in Norfolk, Va., was organized a year ago with $80,000 capital for the purpose of creating a cemetery in Norfolk. It was intended to be the largest cemetery in the South. The company had raised $100,000 on the purchase of land, and some thousands had been expended on improvements when it became apparent either that the cemetery was not wanted or that it was not feasible. The property was bid in for $11,000 yesterday when it was put up at auction.

When you are bilious use those famous little pills known as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They cleanse the liver and bowels. They never gripe.

A CARD.—To the Democratic Voters of the City and County of Alexandria:

At the request of a number of my fellow citizens, I respectfully announce myself a candidate for the position of delegate to the State Constitutional Convention. I will devote myself to a faithful discharge of the duties of the office and will use my best efforts in framing a Constitution which will be acceptable and beneficial to the people. My past grave illness will be brought before this body, prominently those of suffrage and public schools. In these and all other questions I will endeavor to act for the highest interests, present and future, of the Commonwealth.

A CARD.—I announce myself a candidate, and I solicit the support of my fellow citizens for delegate from the city and county of Alexandria to the Constitutional Convention, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

If I am elected a member of that body, I shall strive to promote the interests of the people of my native city and State to the best of my ability.

I am ambitious to help to make a Constitution for Virginia that will give an efficient and economical government.

JOHN M. JOHNSON.
